

As one that relishes free markets, I must pause with great concern about the loosening of current media ownership laws. I must say I am concerned that the proposal would lead to less and not more competition. I also believe it will lead to the erosion of our democracy and bill of rights as we know it.

Less competition is bad for all America media outlets and bad for Americans.